ABOUT YOUR TOURS

If you book the two-night package, it will include everything mentioned below PLUS an additional hotel night on April 10 to rest or explore before the half-day tour begins on April 11, and an additional breakfast on April 11.

The morning of April 11, enjoy a local café before heading out on your included afternoon tour. This afternoon we enjoy a half-day tour of historic Brussels, the capital of Flanders, Belgium and Europe, a francophone enclave in the Flemish northern part of Belgium. The Lower Town is centered around the magnificent Grand Place and still follows a vaguely medieval form with its narrow, atmospheric streets. The Grand Place itself, a wide-open cobble-stoned medieval square of elegant guild houses, is one of Brussels' few set-piece attractions with the Town Hall as its landmark building; its spire will be your point of reference as you weave through the Lower Town streets. The daily business of Brussels takes place here, in the many local bars and cafés whose character and quality are the stuff of legends. South, amid the tourist shops in rue de l'Étuve, is the statue of a naked little boy, a perfect representative of the irreverent Belgian humor. The unique Brussels icon has been amusing visitors since 1619. Brussels, the capital of 500 million Europeans, is waiting to share its treasures with you. On the morning of April 12, enjoy a leisurely breakfast and free time before your included transfer to the ship in the early afternoon.
