Welcome to Panama City!

Panama City is both a gateway to the country's natural riches and a vibrant destination in its own right. As a thriving center for international banking and trade, Panama City sports a sultry skyline of shimmering glass and steel towers that is a sharp contrast to the Old Town (Casco Viejo). The historic center, named a UNESCO World Heritage site, charms visitors with its colonial architecture and rich cultural history.

ABOUT YOUR TOUR

Panama City Skyline

Casco Viejo, the Old Quarter

Miraflores Locks

Panama City Highlights Tour (January 6)

Our half day tour begins with a visit to the Miraflores Locks. We will be passing through these locks on our cruise, and this is a great opportunity to see the operation from the land. The Miraflores Locks Theater and Museum provides the historical background and operational information to better appreciate the scenes visible from our elevated viewing platform.

Next, we will visit Casco Viejo, the Old Quarter. Founded in 1673, it is one of the most beautiful Spanish colonial destinations in the Americas. A UNESCO world heritage site, this historical district remains intact, with a unique mix of colonial architecture and Caribbean style. We will walk through the charming streets, visiting some of the most important sites, and learning about the unique culture and history of Panama. At the end of the tour you can return to the hotel via coach for lunch, or opt to stay in Casco Viejo to enjoy the many restaurants and shops before returning to the hotel at your leisure via taxi.
